WWW.SOCCERMOMSandDADS.COM

Hello Soccer Moms and Dads!

We're thrilled to welcome you to the Ohio Soccer Moms and Dads 2025 Spring Tournament Guide, now entering its 5th year!

As always, this guide is a trusted resource for finding the best tournaments across Ohio and beyond, and we are excited to share the incredible lineup of events that our OSMD Insiders have put together for you. We owe a huge thank you to our Insiders for their ongoing sponsorship and support. Their commitment to youth soccer and their partnership with us make this guide possible. When you participate in their events, be sure to let them know you saw their advertisement in our guide—it's a great way to show your appreciation for their continued support.

This year's guide is designed to help you plan your spring tournament schedule with ease. We've organized Ohio-based tournaments in calendar order, so you can quickly find the events that work best for your team. Additionally, we've included tournaments hosted by our OSMD Insiders that take place outside Ohio, expanding your options for competition and travel.

Whether you're looking for a local event or are interested in exploring tournaments in other states, our guide provides the information you need to make informed decisions about which events to attend. Our goal is to make your tournament planning process as smooth as possible, ensuring you can focus on what matters most: supporting your athletes and their growth in the sport.

If you're interested in partnering with us, collaborating on an event, or learning more about how you can benefit from our platform, don't hesitate to get in touch. We'd love to discuss how we can work together to enhance the experience for soccer families across the region.

Thank you for being a part of the OSMD family. We look forward to helping you all year long.

Warm regards,

Jennifer Dunaway
